

Health Care Finance Graduate Certificate

Health Care Finance is a decision science that relies on an analytical framework for thinking through different incentives which can be associated with different forms of payment. How societies pay for health care and how many resources are devoted to health affects both the care people can get and its quality. Knowledge is needed to help patients and health care beneficiaries pay for medical expenses in the short and long terms.

Total credit hours: 12

Course Number	Course Titles	Credit Hours	Semester(s) Offered	Session Offered
REQUIRED (9 semester credit hours required):
HCA7001	Health Systems Management 1: Organization and Delivery	3	All	1 st half
FIN7021	Health Care Finance 1: Analysis	3	Summer	1 st half
FIN7022	Health Care Finance 2: Decision Making	3	Summer	2 nd half
ELECTIVES (Choose one course - 3 credit hours required):
HCA7002	Health Systems Management 2: Principles of Leadership	3	All	Full term
HCA7031	Health Policy 1: Health Policy & Regulation	3	Spring	Full term
HCA7032	Health Policy 2: Legal and Ethical Issues	3	Fall	Full term
HCA7033	Global Health Systems	3	All	2 nd half
HCA7041	Health Quality 1: Evidence-Based Decision Making	3	Fall	1 st half
HI7010	Health Informatics, Information Systems and Technology	3	All	2 nd half
ECON7021	Health Care Marketplace 1: Health Economics	3	Spring	1 st half
MGMT7022	Health Care Marketplace 2: Strategic Success	3	Spring	2 nd half